Flamenco Zambra

The Flamenco Temple is an imposing cave divided into three sheds, creating a cruising shape, leading to a large central area where the stage is located, elevated one meter above the ground, to promote visibility from any point of the cave. The flamenco show that can be enjoyed in this cave of Albaic'n is full of strength and beauty, directed by the charismatic Granada artist Antonio Vallejo. Take a tour of the most rhythmic sticks of this art, such as: flamenco tangos, buler'as, alegr'as, guajira, sole por buler'as or segurilla, alternating these dance numbers with others of the most current flamenco singing or guitar playing solos.
