Day 1 – México City

Upon arrival you'll be met and transferred to your hotel using a shared service with a Spanish/English speaker guide. Rest of the day is free.

Day 2 – México City (Panoramic city tour)

Panoramic tour (around 5 hours) of Mexico City starting at Reforma Avenue. Then, take Juárez Avenue to get to the Zocalo for a visit of the Cathedral and the National Palace where we can see some impressive Diego Rivera frescoes illustrating the most important historical events of Mexico. Following we visit of the ruins and the last remnants of the Aztec empire in an archeological site where the foundations of the temple were accidentally found in the 1970s. Afterwards we head to the Buenavista Craft Center and we get a panoramic tour of Chapultepec urban park surrounded by residential areas such as Lomas de Chapultepec which is the wealthiest district in the city nearby Chapultepec, and where we can see the mansions where the rich and famous Mexicans live. [B]

Day 3 – México City (Coyoacan)

Our tour starts with a visit to what was formerly the town of Coyoacan. This place is now part of the great Mexican capital city and it fascinates for its great heritage of colorful colonial architecture. We Visit the Church of St. John the Baptist and Frida Kahlo's museum, also called Casa Azul, is the former house of the painter. The museum proposes some of her works, many of her personal artifacts and it is also where Frida lived with her husband Diego Rivera. You will get some free time to walk around Plaza Hidalgo and enjoy the cafés or visit the popular market in this neighborhood. (not available on Mondays) [B]
