Small country in Eastern Europe (some will now say of Northern Europe), Estonia is a Baltic country still spared by mass tourism where you will notice a mixture of European cultures, but also the relics of the Soviet Union. Estonia is a mix of modernity and tranquility. You will fill your need to see cities by visiting Tallinn and Tartu, but you will also be charmed by the silence of the countryside and for your moments of relaxation try one of the many spas in Estonia. For the hipsters, do not worry, this is a very modern country where you will have access to good WI-FI almost everywhere! The country is so small that it can be visited in a week and, in addition to all these qualities, residents speak English very well, so it is easy to travel!
