Capital of Scotland since the 15th century, Edinburgh is a city steeped in history. It was in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries a major artistic center of the English-speaking world with such illustrious residents as Robert Burns, Robert Louis Stevenson, Charles Dickens or Walter Scott. The inventor of the phone Graham Bell is a native of the city. The presence of this rich past leaps to the eye. Nicknamed the "Athens of the North", Edinburgh has an exceptional architectural heritage that makes it one of the most attractive cities in Europe.

Day 1: Edinburgh

Upon arrival in Edinburgh you will be met by our representative and transferred to your hotel. The rest of the day is free for you to rest and adjust to the jetlag. Overnight at the hotel.

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel before your morning city tour of Edinburgh, one of Europe's "must see" destinations. During the tour you will visit Edinburgh Castle, which dominates the city from its 400-foot rock and where you will see the Scottish crown jewels and the Stone of Destiny. You can also visit the private apartments of Mary Stuart and St. Margaret's Chapel, the oldest building in the city, which dates back to the 11th century. Continuing down the Royal Mile, you will visit Saint Giles' Cathedral: Founded in the 1100s, it is a triumph of 14th and 15th century architecture with a crown spire that has dominated the Edinburgh skyline for 500 years. It became the church of John Knox during the Reformation and contains memorials to many great Scots, including Robert Louis Stevenson (a novelist, poet and travel writer) and Robert Burns (a Scottish poet and lyricist). Return to the hotel. [B]
