Makati, the “tourist district” in Manila, is also quite surprising because it sums up what Manila is all about. Huge buildings built in the middle of very poor neighborhoods, jeepneys, in the streets below, honking their horns, people jumping along the way, vendors of kebabs and other small sweets typical of the country challenging you or trying to protect themselves from the polluted vapors of those famous jeepneys. It’s messy, it’s noisy... it’s typical! It’s what makes Manila different from the West and provides the motivation to go there. Another district worth visiting is Intramuros, the historic district (and a little museum) of Manila dating back to the time of the Spanish colonization almost 500 years ago. Also deserving a visit is Rizal Park, an iconic city corner, also known as Luneta, that was the site of many public executions during the Spanish era. Don’t forget the many old catholic churches in the city, including the Cathedral.

Day 1 – Manila

After your arrival formalities you’ll meet your driver/guide who will welcome you and drive you to your hotel. The rest of the day is free for you to rest and relax. Later today, our representative will pick you up at your hotel and drive you to tonight’s restaurant. Watch a colorful dance and music performance in the best of Filipino traditions while dining on gourmet local delicacies at the famous Barbara’s Heritage Restaurant. After the show you’ll be driven to the hotel for overnight. [D]

Day 2 – Manila

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel and be ready to meet your guide for today’s introduction to Manila. The old part of the city, will take you to Fort Santiago and Intramuros. Today’s highlights are the Manila Cathedral, San Agustin Church and a visit to Casa Manila, a museum reproduction of a Spanish era house. To complete the tour, we’ll walk-through Rizal Park, where the Philippines honor their heroes. Since this tour is very personalized you may ask your guide to visit anything specific that you would like to add we are sure you don’t miss anything. At the end of the tour opt for staying in town for some shopping or revisiting any of the highlights or to be driven back to your hotel. The rest of the day is free. Overnight in Manila. [B]

Day 3 – Manila, Next destination

Breakfast at the hotel and checkout. At the appointed time you’ll be driven to Manila Airport to board your flight to your next destination. [B]
