

Meet Bahrain
5 days – 4 nights
Manama, Muharraq, Qal'at al-Bahrain
Relaxation, Discovery, Culture, History

This program may be operated for individuals or for groups

Bahrain is a small island located on an archipelago of the Persian Gulf in the Middle East, bordering Saudi Arabia. Its beaches offer the possibility of practicing many sports activities such as scuba diving and snorkeling. It is possible to hike in the capital and discover its important places such as the entrance to Souk Bab Al Bahrain, Al Fath Mosque and the National Museum. If you want to see the maximum of Bahrain, but don't have much time this tour is your ticket! You'll find places that mark the history of the country such as the 15th century Arad fort, the archaeological site of Qal'at al-Bahrain representing the ruins of the ancient capital!

Day 1: Manama

After clearing immigration and Customs at Manama International Airport, meet our representative for a short drive to your hotel.

Day 2: Manama

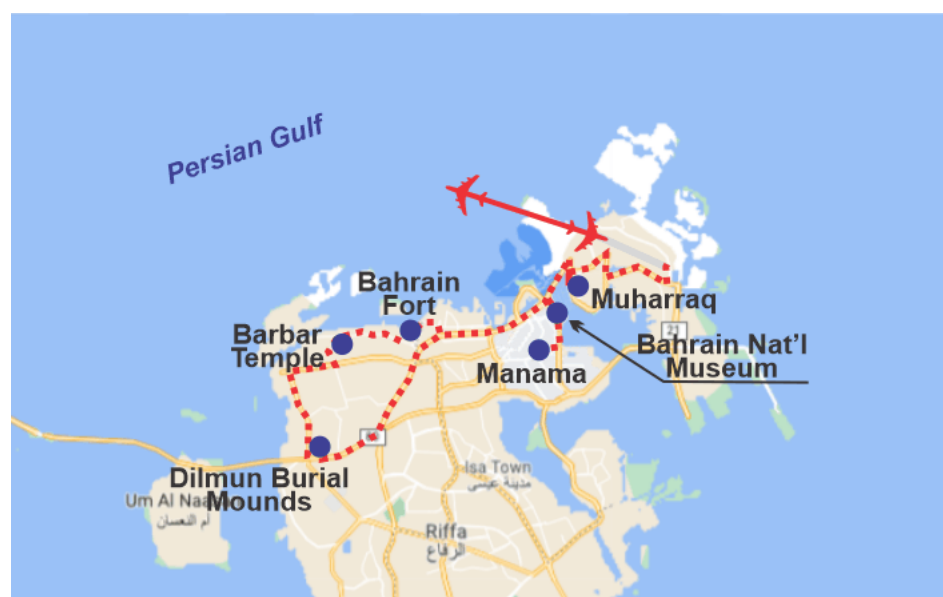

This morning rest and relax taking advantage of your hotel facilities. In the afternoon you'll be picked up by your guide for a sightseeing tour starting from Bab Albahrain for a dazzling shopping experience, Bab Albahrain is a historic building located on the Place des Douanes in the central business district of Manama. It marks the main entrance to the Manama souk. Then you will visit the Royal Camel Farm where you will be with hundreds of camels that you can take camel photos. Going back in time, you will visit the Bahrain Fort. The archaeological finds, which are unearthed in the fort, say a lot about the history of the country. The area is believed to have been occupied for around 5,000 years and contains valuable information about the Copper and Bronze Ages of Bahrain. [B]

Day 3: Manama (Muharraq walking tour)

This afternoon, you'll get an overview of Muharraq Old Town and information about Bahrain that you might never have heard of before. You'll will be fascinated by the old traditional Bahraini houses, their design, art and atmosphere. Each house tells a different story, speaking from the history of Bahraini pearl diving to current and traditional Bahraini art and design including exclusive entry to the Bahrain Pavilion and Bahrain Pearl Path Monument to learn the significance of pearl diver's existence throughout Bahrain's history. Finally, you're invited to a local Bahraini cafe and greeted by the owner, fully dressed in traditional Bahraini attire (thobe), for a dinner of chicken or beef Tikka, Bahraini Arabic tea, coffee, dates and sweets as you learn the ingredients of every drink and food you consume. Return to the hotel for overnight. [B/D]
