Crossed by the main ancient routes, in particular Via Egnatia which linked Rome and Constantinople (crossed at Elbasan), Albania has housed a wide range of civilizations, and whether it is Greek, Roman, Byzantine or Ottoman, each has left its mark. Albanians are proud, respectful and honorable. These principles govern all relationships in society. If you are their host, your well-being will be their priority - but never say no to a glass of raki!

Day 1: Tirana, Kruja

You'll be welcomed by our representative upon arrival at Tirana airport and driven to Kruja, on Albania's west coast. This medieval city leaning against the cliff is nicknamed the "balcony of the Adriatic" by its inhabitants. Depending on your flight schedule, discover the city with its cobbled, narrow and winding streets. Visit the recently restored castle and its museum which reveals the story of glorious battles, an essential and fascinating chapter in medieval Albanian history. Stroll through the traditional bazaar to discover local crafts. It is one of the best places in the country to buy souvenirs. [D]

Day 2: Kruja, Tirana, Durres

Depart for the capital, Tirana, and visit the city's highlights like Skanderberg Square with the Et'hem Bey mosque, the national museum, the snuffbox bridge. Discover the world center of Bektachis, a variant of Islam unique in the world. Stroll through the Blloku district with its colorful facades, its famous brand boutiques and its small stalls. After lunch at a local restaurant we leave for the seaside town of Durres, that, today, is the second largest city in Albania and the main port of the country. Visit the fortress and its Venetian tower, its amphitheater (one of the largest on the Balkan peninsula) and its museum. Dinner in a fish restaurant with a magnificent view of the Adriatic. [B/L/D]

Day 3: Durres, Berat, Apollonia, Vlora

On our way to Vlora, we head first to the interior towards the town of Berat, a city classified by UNESCO as a World Heritage site in 2008. It is a city museum which abounds in architectural marvels. During our tour we visit the castle, the Onufri museum with its fascinating paintings and a church near the ramparts. After lunch we continue to Apollonia, an ancient Greek city, listed as a UNESCO Heritage site, to admire its superb old buildings scattered among olive trees. Then, we take the road to Vlora and the Otranto Canal, where the Adriatic Sea meets the Ionian Sea. Enjoy dinner an overnight at the hotel in Vlora. [B/LD]

Day 4: Vlora, Butrint, Saranda

Continue the drive along the cliffs that plunge into the sea towards the bay of Porto Palermo located near a pretty cove with transparent waters and a great spot for lunch. In the afternoon, continue towards the archaeological site of Butrint, which has been inhabited since prehistoric times and is another of the many UNESCO heritage sites in Albania. Continuing further south to almost reach Albania's border with Greece and visit Ksamil and its beaches comparable only to Bora Bora. Day 5: Saranda, Gjirokaster

We leave for "The Blue Eye", a natural spring on the way to Gjirokaster. It is an enchanting place, a sort of 150-foot deep water source surrounded by forests. Its name comes from its unusual blue-green color which forms like an iris in the middle. After a short stop, continue to the UNESCO's World Heritage town of Gjirokastër to visit the museum and take a city tour. Admire the citadel, the small alleys of cobble stones, old houses and the mosques. Enjoy lunch at one of the town's restaurants. In the afternoon we visit a timeless town nearby that has not changed since the communist era. Meet a local family to share a unique moment and taste a dessert. After check-in, some free time to explore the town before dinner at the hotel. [B/L/D]

Day 6: Gjirokaster, Korca

During our 4-hour drive to Korca, via magnificent and grandiose landscapes, the road plunges into the gorges with a magnificent panorama of the surrounding nature. Stop for a picnic lunch at a fish farm before arriving in Korca. During the Ottoman period, the city became one of the centers of the Albanian renaissance. The first Albanian language school was established there in 1887. Visit this city steeped in history and its market in the old quarter and enjoy a tasting of Korca's beer.
